         BY MS. MELL:
      Q When you say "we accept service," if you're not there
 6
 7
         and I need to subpoena you, the Attorney General's 8
         Office will accept service for you?
9
      A Yeah.
10
                       MS. CHIEN: Yes.
11
         BY MS. MELL:
      Q Okay. And your phone number?
12
      A (206) 464-5342.
13
      Q And that's work?
14
      A That's my direct line at work.
15
16
      Q What is your position?
17
      A I'm a unit chief for the civil rights unit at the 18
         Washington State Attorney General's Office.
19
      Q How many people are in the civil rights unit?
20
      A Thirteen.
      Q And who are those people comprised of? I don't need to 21
22
         know their names, I just need to know what they do.
23
      A They're attorneys and support staff that include investigator, paralegal, legal assistant, staff members.
24
      Q Who is the investigator?

BY MS. MELL:

- Q How do you accuse GEO of understaffing a facility unless you know what the staffing requires?
- A We haven't accused of GEO of understaffing a facility.
 We accused GEO of not paying the staff that it has chosen to employ the rate that's required by law.
- Q I thought I understood that you said Attorney General Ferguson has an interest in having Washington citizens do the jobs needed to operate the facility.
- A No. I've said that Attorney General Ferguson, through the Office of the Attorney General in the civil rights unit, has a position that the jobs being done by detainee workers in the facility is work that's compensable to employees under Washington law. The position is not that it should be detainees or that it should not be non-detainees doing the work. We don't have a position on that. The position is the people who do the work in the facility, whoever they are, need to be paid minimum wage for that work.
- Q Okay. But does Attorney General Ferguson have a basis for saying that any number of Washington citizens should be doing the work in the facility?
- A No, because we don't think that it has to be Washington citizens.
- Q And the Attorney General Ferguson is not taking a
